

Island series

Designed by Umit Caglar, Turkey

Island is a coffee table inspired by the Nordic nature with an organic design. The contours and soft lines of the table top imitate waves that hit the coast and help give Island a graphic and playful expression. The traditional craftsmanship is particularly evident in the solid base made of FSC-certified wood, while the design makes Island the perfect match for a sofa with chaise longue.

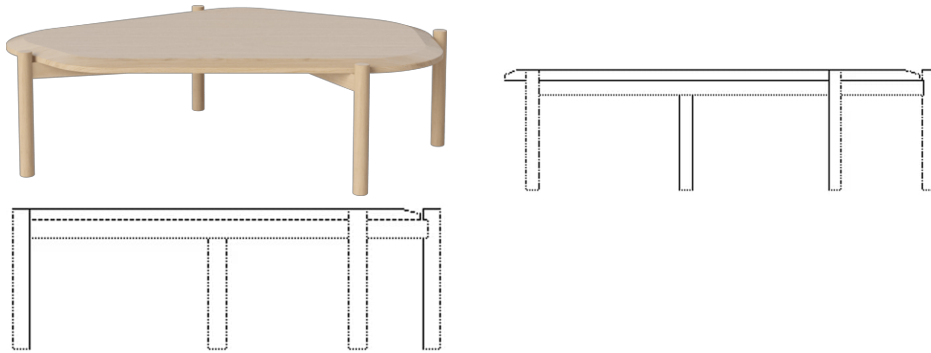

Meet the designer

I was trained as an interior designer and grew up in a creative home, which has always followed me in my work. I combine organic lines with natural shapes and materials, and I generally use them in an interdisciplinary way, by combining different shapes, disciplines and idioms. I am fascinated by merging traditional craftsmanship with new technologies to achieve an innovative design that has never been seen before.
