The classic Fröbel star made in solid, smoke stained oak with a leather cord for hanging

LONG

As a child you probably experienced that grownups became more cheerful around Christmas time and found the energy to bake and create Christmas decorations. One of the most beloved home-made Christmas decorations is the braided, sixteen-pointed Fröbelstar, folded by strips of paper.

The star has now become a luminous memory of the childhood joy of Christmas – here made in solid smoked stained oak with soft edges and leather cord for hanging. It finds its natural place hanging alone or in a beautiful group.
